
Congratulations to the KMHA 2019/20 season
award winners

IP Coach: Graeme Smyth

Graeme stepped up to lead his IP Team. In his first year as a hockey coach, he did a great job ensuring the team had practice plans that focused on skill development and fun. His enthusiasm and positive approach were well received by players, parents, and team staff.

Novice Coach: Darrell Ahee

Darrell took on the role of coach, he thrived in learning how to bring the best experience to the players and bettering himself as a coach. Darrell's enthusiasm, willingness to learn and coaching will be a benefit to the minor hockey players in the KMHA for years to come.

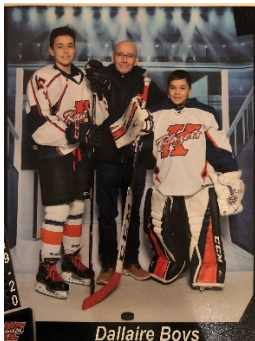

Atom Coach: Justin Bayard

Justin approached the opportunity to coach with enthusiasm and great commitment. His practices were extremely well planned and structured with a focus on player development in a fun and supportive environment. Justin's passion for the sport and his team were always evident.

Peewee Coach of the year Craig Lyons

Craig demonstrated great leadership, a dedication to coaching and to the game of hockey. Craig brought an extremely positive attitude to the rink each time which made for an enjoyable environment for his players, parents and team staff. Craig also coached a Bantam team and was a member of the KMHA goalie committee. His dedication to his players and their development was truly appreciated.

Bantam Coach of the year Raymond Dallaire

Raymond was a great help during sort outs and was always prepared for practices with great practice plans. He was a big proponent of player development, always using his affiliate players whenever possible and encouraging shared ice practices. His all-around commitment to his team and hockey in general is commendable.

Midget Coach: Kelly O'Donnell

Kelly's approach to his team this year was one of optimism. From the beginning, he had an extremely positive outlook and focused his energy on developing and improving the team. Under his guidance and coaching, the team had a successful and fun season.

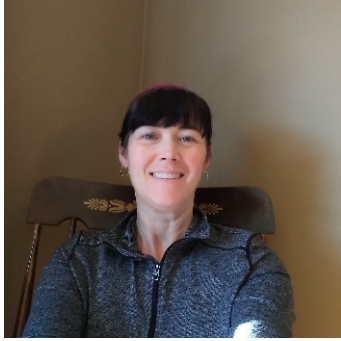

Rep A Coach Jason Bosomworth

Jason had a very challenging level (Minor Pee-wee A) to coach and did so while creating a positive team environment. He ran disciplined practices that over the course of the season maximized player development. His passion, leadership and technical skills were very appreciated. Thanks Coach!

Rep B Coach Shawn Lebouthillier

Shawn's approach to his team (Major Atom B) this year focused on individual player development with an emphasis on team play. Through his patience and knowledge of the game, his players and team developed in a structured, fun and safe environment. Great job Coach!

Rep Volunteer of the Year Natalie Adams

Natalie Adams holds the official role of Team Trainer, but she brought so much more to the Minor Peeewe AA team. In addition to her regular trainer duty roles, she was responsible for the team's pre-game warm-ups and hauling around the largest trainer case nicknamed the "Broffice". Her commitment to the players and team were extremely appreciated. Thank you, Natalie,!

HL Volunteers of the Year Erin Nagy and Kelly Holden

Erin Nagy and Kelly Holden were instrumental in advancing key initiatives this past season for our House League Program. Many hours were spent debating, articulating and videotaping the standardization of our sort-out process. Their presence at the rink throughout the season and efforts in carrying out their functions were greatly appreciated. Thank you!

KMHA Volunteer of the Year Award Wilco Denissen

This year's award goes to Wilco Denissen. Wilco agreed to take on the role of Goalie Co-Convenor during the summer. Wilco spent many hours during the house sort-outs by running the initial goalie sessions to further assisting Convenors in their goalie needs. This dedication continued through-out the season with his plan for goalie coach development. This year saw an increase in the number of goalie coach's attending clinics along with a greater emphasis for goalie coaches to obtain resources for their needs.

Congratulations Wilco well deserved and much appreciated!

KMHA Executive of the Year Award Jason Dunn

This year's award goes to Jason Dunn KMHA's VP of Hockey Programs. Right from the day Jason was elected to our Board he hit the ground running with a plan to continue improving our hockey programs. Jason spent the summer working tirelessly for both our Competitive and House Programs ensuring the start of the season was a seamless process. This commitment and dedication continued throughout the season with many hours spent in meetings and at rinks obtaining feedback for ways to keep improving our programs.

Congratulations Jason well deserved and much appreciated!
